PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

READ, TO CONGRESS ASSEMBLED

A Number of Interesting Topics Dis cussed and Suggested - Finnness, A Government Telegraph, Civil , Service, lite.

Washington, Dec. 4.—President Ar thur's annual message was duly iabl before Congress The President, at the outset congratulates Congress upon the favorable aspect of the domestic and foreign affairs of the Government. Our relations with other countries continue upon a friendly footing Notice of the termination of the fisheries urticle of the Treaty of Washington has been given to the Brit ish Government, and that the re-chrocal privileges leand texemption of the treaty will cease on Junuary 1, 1885. of the, therefore, suggests that Congress create a commission to consider the general question of our rights in the fisheries, and the means of opening to our citic zens under just and embiring conditions. the richity stocked fishing waters of liritish America. Concerning out "The rapid influx of our capital and enterprise into that vast country shows, by whal has already been accomplished, the vast reciprocal advantages which must attend the progress of its internal development. The treaty of commerce and navigation of 1848 has been terminated by the Mexican tiovernment, and, in the absence of conventional engagements, the rights of our efficient in Mexico now depend upon the domestic statutes of that Repub lic. There lieve theen hatances of hursh onforcement of laws against our Vessels and citizens in Mexico, and of dental of the diplomatic applications for their protect tion. The initial step toward a better un derstanding has been taken in the negotintion by the Commission nathorized by Conernments against these savages, have been successful, and several of their most dangerous bands linve been enptured of dispersed by the skill and value of the United States and Mexican soldlers, lighting in a common cause," a . 1 CHILI'AND PERU.

The Chili-Peruvian affairs a.e dismissed with the following paragraph: "The contest between Bolivia, Chili, and Peru has passed from the stage of strategic hostlilties) to that of negotiation, in which the counsels of this Government have been exercised. The demands of Chili for absolute cossion of ter-ritory have been maintained and ac-cepted by the party of General Iglesias, to the extent of concluding a treaty of peace with the Government of Chill in general conformity with the terms of the protocol signed in May last between the Chilian commander and general iglesias. I d'As' a resuit of the conclusion of the treaty, General Iglesias has been-formally recognized by Chili as President of Peru and his government inby the Chilinus. A call has been issued by General Igleshs for a representative an assambly, and the elected January, on the 19th of January, and to meet at Lima on the 1st of March next. Meanwhile, the Trovisional Government of General Igieslas has applied for recognition to the principal powers of America and When the will of the Pernyhip people shall be manufested, i shall not hesitate to recignize the government approved by them."

In view of the frequency of invitations from foreign governments, to participate in social and scientific congresses for the discussion of important matters of general concern, the President repeats the sug- before Congress. gestion of his last message, that provision be made for the exercise of discretionary power by the executive in appointing delegations to such convocations. specialists are ready to serve the national interest in such capacity without personal profit, defrayment of expenses actually in curred, and this, a comparitively small nnumi appropriation would be sufficient

Miliparating phaneity is Lac-The President quotes from the exhibit of the financial condition of the country given in the report of the Secretary of the Treas ury, showing the recepts and expandi tures, actual and estimated, for the current fiscal year, and then discusses financial subjects as follows: Total receipts, actual and astimated, $245,000,000. Total expenditures, actual and estimated, $258,000,000; surplus, $185,000,000. Estimated amount due the sinking fund, $45,810,741.07, leaving a balance of $39,181,258.93 If the revenue for the liscal year, which will end on June 30, 1888, the estimated upon the basis of existing laws, the Secretary is of the opinion that for that year the receipts will exceed, by sixty million deliars, the ordinary expenditures, including the amount devoted to the sinking fund. Hitherto the surplus, as rapidly as it has accumulated, has been devoted to the reduction of the national lebt. As a result, the only bonds now outstanding which are redeemable at the pleasure of the Government, are three per cents amounting to about $505,amounting to $250,000,000, and the $37d, 000,000 four per cents are not payable until 1891 and 1907, respectively. The sur-plus will hereafter be as large at the treesury, as the estimates new indicate, the three per cent bonds may all he re-C. L. FROWN,

Same rate of accumulation of surplus, can same rate of necumnilation of surplus, can be paid at maturity and the moneys requisite for the redemption of the four per cents will be in the Treasury many years before these foldigations become payable. There are cogent reasons, however, why the national indubtedness should not be thus rapidly extinguished. Chief among them is the fact that only by excessive taxation de such rapidity attainable.

down to the extent of at least fifty or sixty millions of dollars. While I have no doubt that still further reductions may be wisely made, I do not advise the adoption, at this session, of any measure for large diminution of the National revenues. The result, of the legislation of the last session of Congress have not, as yet, become sufficiently apparent to justify any radical revision or sweeping modifications of existing law. In the interval which must empse before the effects of the act of March 3, 1883, can be finally ascertained, a portion, at least, of the surplus revenues may be wisely applied to the long neglected duty of rehabilitating our navy and providing coast defenses for the protection of our harbors. This is a matter to which I shail again advert.

THE CURRENCY. . . Immediately associated with the fluan cial subject just discussed is the important question, what legislation is needed regarding the national currency! The aggregate minount of bonds now on deposit in the treasury to support the national bank circulation is about $350,000,000. Nearly $200,000,000 million of this amount of three per cent, which, as aiready siabid. are payable at the pleasure of the Government, and are likely to be called in in less than four years, unless, meantime, the surplus revenues shall be diminished. probable effect of such an extensive retireent of the securities, which are the basis of the National bank circulation, would be such a contraction of the volume of the re call embarrassments. How can danger be obviated! most effectual plnn, and our whose adoption at the earliest practicable oppor ready been indicated. If the revenues of he has been able to give to it, since his last the next-four years shall be kept substantially consumments with the expenses, the volume of circulation will not be likely to ffer any material disturbance. But if. the other hand, there shall be great delay gress of a trenty which is still before the Senate, awaiting its approval. The provisions of the fronter to by the troops in pursuit of hostile Indians have been prolonged for another year. The operations of the forces of both Gov. in reducing taxation, it will become necesto your attention the very interesting and oughtful suggestions upon this subject, which appear in the Secretary's report. The objections which he urges against the acceptance of my other securities than the obligations of the Government itself, as a foundation for national bank circulation. seem to me insurmountable. For averting the threatened contraction two courses have been suggested, either of which b probably feasible. One is, the issuance of new bouds having many years to run, and bearing a low rate of Interest, and exchanged upon specified term for those now outstanding. The other course, which commends itself to my own judgment as the better, is the cu actment of the clause repealing the tax or circulation and permitting the banks to is sue notes for an amount equal to ninety per cent of the market value, instead, a now, of the face value, of their deposite. bonds. I agree with the Secretary in the belief that the adoption of this plan would attord the necessary relief. -

THEFECTION OF FORESTS. in my last annual message I called attention to the necessity of protecting, by suitable legislation, the forests situated upon the public domain. In many portions of the West the pur suit of general agriculture is only made practicable by resort to irrigation, while successful irrigation would be impossible without the aid afforded by forests in contributing to the regularity and constancy of supply of water. During the past year severe suffering and great loss of property have been occasioned by profuse floods, followed by periods of unusually low water in many of the great rivers of the

These irregularities were in great measure caused by the removal from about the sources of the streams in question of the timber by which the water supply had twen nourished and protected. The preservation of such portion of the forests on the national domain as essentially contribute to the equable flow of important water courses is of the highest conse-

Important tributaries of the Missouri, the Columbia and the Saskatchewan rise in the mountains of Montana, near tho northern boundary of the United States. between the Blackfeet and Flathead Indian reservations. This region is unsuitable for settlement, but upon the rivers which flow from it depend the future azrienitural development of a 'vast ' tract of country. The attention of Congress is called to the necessity of withdrawing from public sale this part of the public domain, and estublishing there a forest preserve.

THE TRADE DOLLAR.

The trade dollar was coined for the purpose of trallio in countries where silver passed at its actual value, as ascertained by its weight and fluoress. It never had a legal tender quality. Darge numbers of these coins, however, entered into the volume of our currency. , By common consent their circulation in domestic trade has now coased, and they have thus become a dislonger permitted to embarass our enriency system. I, therefore, recommend that provision be unide for their reception by the Treasury and the minis, as bullion, at a small percentage above the current market price of silver of like linances."

\ ' OUR UNPROTECTED COASTS,

The President cails the attention of Congress to the present condition our extended sea coast, upon which so many burge cities, woulth and importance to the country would in thue of war invite attack from modern armored ships, against which our existing defensive works could give no adequate protection, and suggests that, if these works are not put in an efficient condition, we may easily be subjected to bumiliation by hostile powers greatly inferior to ourselves. Suitable facilities for the manufacture of heavy orinance adapted to modern warfare, and the perfection of our sub-marine torpedo defenses are also recommended.

THE STATE MILITIA.

The encouragement of State militia organizations by the National Government, the President believes would be followed by very gratifying results, and would afford, in sudden emergencies, the aid of a large body of volunteers educated in the performance of military duties,

OUR RHEUMATIC NAVY.

The President endeavors to impress upon the attention of Congress the necessity of continued progress in the reconstruction of the Navy. The condition of the Trensury makes the present an auspicious time for putting this branch of the service in a state of efficiency. While it is no part of our policy to create and maintain a Navy able to cope with those of the other great powers of the world, and while we have no wish for foreign conquest, and the peace which we have long enjoyed is in no seeming langer of interruption, still our mayal force should be adequate for the defence of our harbors, the protection of our commercial interests, and the maintainance of our national honor.

AT TO GOVERNMENT TELEGRAPH. On the subject of Government telegraph, annual message, has not led him to change the views then expressed, in dissenting from the recommendation of the then Postmaster General, that the Government assume the same control over the tele graph which it has always oxercised over the mail, Admitting that the Government's authority in the premises is as ample as has ever been claimed, it would not, in his judgment, be a wise use of that authority to purchase or assume control of existing lines, or to construct others with a view of entoring into general competition with a private enterprise. He dismisses the subject by avowing the belief, however, that the Governs ment should exercise some sort of smervis ion over inter-State telegraphic communi

THE EDUCATION QUESTION Referring to the alarming state of illiteracy in certain portions of the country, the President suggests Federal aid to public primary education wherever adequate provision has not already been made.

POLYGAMY.

Concerning the extirpacian of polynomy, the President is convinced that the cvil lin become so strongly intrenched in Utah that it is profitiess to attack it with any but the stontest weapous which constitutional legis lation can fashion. He therefore frypre the repeal of the net meen which the exist ing Government depends, the assumption by the National Legislature of the entire political control of the Territory, and the establishment of a commission with such nowers and duties as shall be delegated to it by law.

RAILROAD PRIVILEGES.

The President's concinsions on the subject of luter-State railroad commerce is described as follows: The right of these allway corporations to a fair and prolitade return upon their investments and to reasonable freedom in the regulations nust he recognized, but it seems only just, that, as far as its constitutional authority will permit. Congress should protect the prople at large in their Inter-State traffic against acts of injustice which the state governments are powerless to prevent. The effect of the new system of civil service the President believes have thus far proved heneficial. It's practical methods appear to be adequate for the ends proposed, and there hasheen up serious lillicity in carrying them into effect. On the subject of Presidential succession and the proper interpretation of the constitutional phrase "Inability to discharge the powers and duties of said office," the President expresses the hope that these juestions will find speedy solution, lest an emergency arises when longer delay will m impossible, and mny determination furnish cause for anxiety and alarm. THE CIVIL RIGHTS MATTER.

The message closes with the following illusion and suggestion respecting the ivit rights of the colored race: "The Foureenth Amendment of the Constitution coners the right of citizenship upon all persons ern, or naturalized, in the United States nd subject to the jurisdiction thereof. It vas the special purpose of this amendnent to insure the colored race the full enoyment of their civil and political rights. ertain statutory provisions, intended to course the inforcement of those rights, have seem recently decided unconstitutional by in Supreme Court. Any legislation whereby Congress may lawfully supplenent the guarantees which the Constituion affords for the equal enjoyment by all ho citizens of the United States of every right, privilege, and immunity of citizeuwill receive my unhesitating apgroval.

THE HICKMAN MURDER.

ARREST OF A SUSPECTED NEGRO.

The Sentiment in Tennessee Regarding Him-Fears of a Mob-Intense Indignation in the Vicinity of the Crime.

HICKMAN, Ky., Dec. 4.—A negro man, Columbus Clark, has been arrested and is held at Troy, Tenna, charged with the kiliing of King and his wife." It is rumored that the hatchet used in breaking the trunk has been identified by Dick Harrison, a butcher of Union City, as his, and that this natchet and some other butchers' tools were missing at the same time and about the time Clark left Harrison's employ. Clark was tried at Troy for the thoft of these tools, but the result of the trial is unknown here as yet. Few people here believe Clark gniity of this crime, though he has served one term in the Kentucky prison for cutting with intent to kill. comes from Obion that Clark is hebl at Troy in the court-house under strong gnard, and fears are entertained there of a Kentucky mob's violence. Few, If any, at Troy believe that Clark did the deed, and are afraid of Kentucky in letting their passions master their judgment. The outcome of the Clark arrest is awaited with feverish impatience by the people here, and the estate of King will offer a reward of $1,000 for the apprehension and conviction of the murderer. When the murderer is found his rest will be near the scene of the diabolical crime, and will fill the community with horror as great as the offense itself.

A HORRIBLE CONFESSION.

Sickening Tale.

The New Hampsbire Assassin Relates LACONIA, N. H., Dec. 4.-Thomas Sal mon sent for Sheriff Strong and E. P. Jeweli, Esq., and mude a full confession of the terrible tragedy which so burrilled the community a week ago. He stated that Saturday morning Mrs. Forol came to his room and asked for lager. Both hal drank heavily the day before. He refused her. Other words followed, and he threw her on the floor and put his foot on her breast. She never spoke, and soon died. He felt requitted. mad and disconraged, but had not thought of killing her. He then went about the house bewiidered not knowing what to do with himself. Ho tried to put her into a box but it was too small. He thin took a trunk ami cut her knees to get her in. She did not bleed my ami he sibl not wash the axe. He then went down street, returned, and in an hour dragged the trunk down stairs, put it on a wheelbarrow and started off, intending to dispose of the body and drown himself. On the road it occurred to him to go to Ruddy's house, to which he expected to move in a jay or two. He ind no thought of larming them. On reaching there he left the trunk outside, had some conversation with Mrs. Ruddy. went down town, went back to Ford's, car ried some things over to Ruddy's in a pail, and thought he would get up in the morning and bury the trunk somewhere. Then he took the trunk into the house. He are supper with the Ruldys, then took off his coat and vest and laid down in the room with the trunk, while the Ruddys went to bed in the front room. He could not sleep and grew constantly worse. Couldn't sit down or walk, and didn't know wint to do with himself; would go out, come in, and wnik around in the house. Ruddy's folks finally got up between tweive and one Mini o'clock. Ruddy made him some ten. Ruddy sat up with him, He did not intimate to Ruddy what the trouble was. About three o'clock it occurred to him that he might kill them and then burn the house. That

TWENTY-FIVE HOUSES ENGULFED. A Vast Cove-in of Land Over the St. Nicholns Colliery.

St. Nicholas, Pa., Dec. 4.-The inhabitants of the houses near the St. Nicholas Colliery were startled yesterday evening by an order from the officials of the Reading Company to leave at once as the houses were ail undermined and were likely to sink at any moment. Ali last night the neighborhood was a scene of excitement and alarm. Everbody was bent on getting their household goods out of the rough tenements.

The earth cracked and trembled. A space fell in. Conveyances were brought to carry the goods of 350 people who lived in the vicinity. Siice after slice of earth opened and sank.

To-day the cave-in continued, and the public highway was pronounced unsafe and travel was stopped on it. By noon everything was gotten safely ont and the twenty-four tenement houses were left to sink one by one. The houses are owned y the Philadeiphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, which has worked the St. Nicholas colliery.

THE DENNY CASE.

General Hellef That the Accused Will Be Arquitted,

LANGASTER, Ky., Dec. 4.—The Denny-Amberson trial has been in progress all lay. The defense introduced a number of witnesses who testified that Anderson had threatened to kili Denny, and that they had communicated the threats to Denny; also that Amlerson wasmaking an effort to draw his pistol when Denny fired the first shot. On this point the prosecution makes its greatest fight. Four witnesses have testified that Anderson was not making any effort toward Denny, while he same number testify that he was drawng his pistol when Denny fired. The crosecution closed its case and S. M. Burlette opened the argument for the defense, and was followed by B. M. Burdette on the same side. John W. Yorkes spoke for the prosecution, when the Court adjourned until ten o'clock to-day, when W. O. Brailley will close for the defense and Robert Harding will close for the prosecution. The case will then be given to the Court. The general opinion is that Denny will be CINCINNATI, Doc. 4 .- A German named ohn Bock, who is generally drunk; was a title drunker than usual Tuesday mornng and staggered into a prominent Vine arcet saloon, where he demanded a glass f beer. The har-keeper, seeing the man's on dillon, refused to serve him, at which Beck became highly incensed, with a few words he drew is revolver and deliberately shot the bareeper twice, one bail taking effect in ne neck and making a serious wound. The bar-keeper is at the hospital and will probably die. Beck was arrested and is in mii. He says he set out with the intention of "giving it to somebody," and that the har-keeper happened to be the viciim.

Employes vs. Employers.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Dec. 4 .- On Saturday last a number of suits were again brought before Alderman Jones, of this city, against the Bethlehem Iron Company, by former employes of the company for the recovery of money deducted from the wages of the workmen for store bills, etc., without consent of the hands. It is probable that all the cases will be appealed to court. The cults will cost the company between $200,000 and $300,000 if the court decides in favor of the workmen. All of the suits were brought by the discharged employes, who took part in the recent etrike.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.-Two English pugliists, Dick Roberts and Bill Goode, recently ingaged in a hard glove fight which lasted nine rounds. These took thirty-three minntes to decide, and, as Roberts was getting so hadly punished, his friends turned off the gas and raised the cry of "police." In the seventh round Roberts was knocked down twice, and was badly used up. The live other rounds were fought by the aid of lighted tapers, which spectators held in their hands, and the battle was ultimately declared a draw.

30me Business and Social Maxima Which May be Worth Remembering.

If you want to succeed in life, you must srap yourself in mystery. If you earn but 5 a week, you must dissemble in such a namer as to make people believe you enjoy princely income. You must talk about wealthy people as hough intimately acquainted with them. You must walk down town to save money, ind tell people you do it for the exercise, which you need because of your sedentary sestion, even if you are a bod-carrier in an obscure neighberhood.

If you can't get an overcoat, smilingly go without one, and laugh at the man who wears me, and say you are not delicate and the weather is not cold enough, and you're afraid you will be obliged to put on your summer inderclothing if it doesn't harry up and get

If you can't afford to leave the city during he heated term, say you prefer the city every time, and ridicule the country as much as possible by saying it is only a bower of musjuitoes and malaria, and that you can't get a lecent meal there to save your life.

But if you can't afford to live at Newport or in the more fashionable part of the city, zo and secure a den in Bieecker street or some other out-of-the-way place, and camp out for the summer, and tell your friends in the winter that you have been in Colorado. If you are unable to secure a Derby in Oc-

Then, when an elderly man asks you how nuch money you are making, out of idle curiosity, turn about and smilingly ask him if he thinks Tilden will run. Never answer his juestion, and, above all things, never swap oufidences or become intimate with people you meet in a boarding-house.

When a man tells you how you might make a big fortune, ask him how it is that he is poor. And when he tells you how rich he would be if he were only your age, tell him that no one can preach success as eloquently is a pronounced fallure.

If you incline to gambling, keep out of Wall street. Leave stocks alone, and go risk your money in a legitimate gamblinghouse. It is all gambling, and the same house gives you your verdict right before your eyes, on the spot.

Never rush in to separate two men who ficient provocation to manl each other, it would be cowardly and wicked for them not to fight. Anyhow, it is none of your busiare paying their bills more promptly ness, and you, therefore, have no right to luterfere and spoll the fnn; because we have no more fun in this world than we want, and the more we have the happier we become.

Never land at a friend's house at mealtime. It will look as though you are trying to secure a gratuitous dinner; and, besides, you will not get a better dinner than you can buy anywhere for a dollar; and they may have a number of things on the table that you don't like, and you will have to eat them out of

A Curious Allegation.

ERIE, Pa., Dec. 4.-W. Brown, Superintendent of the County Alms-Ilonse, has been arrested, charged with inhumanity to Mrs. Thompson, who was visiting Julia Hill, a dying consumptive girl. Julia Hill had taken a notion to make her own shroud, and begged the lady to purchase the material necessary. Mrs. Thompson did so, and, while showing Julla how to cut out the shroud, she alleges that she was seized y the Superlutendent and struck senseless. Brown denies the allegation, and says the woman was intoxicated, disturbing the patients and dangerously exciting the dying girl. He has always been considered a kind and humane guardlan.

SCROFULA

Eczema, Blotches, Itingworm, Tumours, Carbuncles, Boils, and Eruptions of the Skin, are the direct result of an impure state of the blocat.

To enre these diseases the blood must be purttied, and restored to a healthy and natural condition. Aver's Sarsaparilla has for ever forty ears been recognized by culnent medical authorities as the most powerful blood purifier in existence. It frees the system from all foul humors, corletes and strengthens the blood, removes all traces of mercurial treatment, and proves itself a complete number of all scrofulous diseases.

A Recent Cure of Scrofnlons Sores. Some months ago I was troubled with scrofu-"Some months ago I was troubled with scrounders sores Interes) on my legs. The limbs were lady swedlen and inflamed, and the sores discharged large quantities of offensive matter. Every remedy I tried failed, until I used Ayan's Sansapantilla, of which I have new taken three bottles, with the result that the sores are healed, and my general health greatly improved. I feel very grateful for the goad your medicine has done me. Vours respectfully, Mas. Ann O'Bulan."

The All persons Interested are invited to cell on Mrs. O'Brian; also upon the Rev. Z. F. Wilds of 78 East 54th Steet, New York City, who will take plensure in testifying to the wonderfid ellicacy of Ayer's Sarsaparil-la, not only in the cure of this indy, but in his own case and many others within his knowledge.

The well-known writer on the Boston Herald, B. W. BALL, of Rochester, N.H., writes, June 7, 1882: " liaving suffered severely for some years with Eczema, and having falled to find relief from other remodies, I have anade use, during the past three monlis, of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, which has effected a complete cure. I consider it a magnifi-cent remedy for all blood diseases," silandates and regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, renews and strengthens the vital forces, and speedly cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Itheumatic Gaul, Cotarrh, General Debility, and all diseases arlsing from an impoverished or corrupted condition of the blood, and a weakened vitality.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

Santa Rosa, California, Feb. 9, 1881.

B. J. Kennall & Co.,—Genis:—I teel it a duly to others suffering with the piles and lating of the rectum to write to you. I have lind the piles and prolapsups of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. I tried everything without relief, but after ten day's use of Kendaji's Spavin Cure, I imve not seen or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I telt at being cured of a disensa almost worse that death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kluds of liniments and had it ent open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bought a lottle of Leudsil's Spavin Cure and ordered my leanister to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has slone for my horse might benefit mure. I tried it as a last resort, With gratitude and best wishes for your success, I am faithfully yours.

GRANT'S BELIEF.

Rumor That lie Has Become a Spirit. uallet.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—It is learned, from sources of the highest authority, that General Grant and his wife have been recently converted to spiritualism in its most pro nounced form. This statement comes from two ladies; one of whom has a national reputation for culture, attainments and position in society, while the other is likewise a lady of great prominence, publicly identified with the advocacy of spiritualism, and who is not only welcome, but the petted guest, in some of the finest of Gotham's palaces. It is stated that both General and Mrs. Grant first became interested in spiritualism and its doctrines from being present, by invitation, at seances held in Fifth avenue and Murray Hill mansions. From being mere spectators they gradually developed into investigators, until they finally found themselves in full accord with followers of the spiritualistic school. The unquestionable authority from which the information comes is also authority for the additional statement that only the fear of public ridicule prevents the General from acknowledging and championing his new-found

Fancy and Staple CRO

Encouraged by the largely-hereased trade I have had during the hist year, and being determined to further increase it the coming year, I have taken special pains in the selection of my stock for the fall and winter trade in order that I may be fully prepared to infect the wants of my customers in every particular. My goods are all first-class as in quality; purchased from first hands for cash, and I risk nothing in saying that I am prepared to successfully compete with any house in the city. I carry the largest and most complete stock of CANNED GOODS in the city, all strictly standard and guaranteed to give satisfaction. My house is headquarters for
